Item 0200 Pickup and Delivery Service

Section 01

Effective Jan/01/16

Rates include one pickup and loading and one delivery and unloading or one tender of delivery of a shipment by Carrier, subject to the following provisions:

- A. Pickup or delivery site will be directly accessible or immediately adjacent to Carrier's equipment, and will be suitable and practicable for such equipment to operate, and does not endanger Carrier.
- B. Carrier will not be required to receive freight likely to impregnate or damage other freight or Carrier's equipment.
- C. When freight is transported in shipping containers, such as pallets, skids, totes, reels or other such articles, which are an integral part of the shipment, such containers are to be delivered and receipted for by the Consignee. Carrier will not return such containers free of charge, even though the bill of lading may so state.

Loading and unloading service will be subject to the following provisions:

- A. Carrier will perform the loading and unloading, except as provided in NMFC Item 568 and as shown below:
 1. Does not include assembling, packing or unpacking, dismantling, inspecting, sorting or segregating freight.
 2. Does not include furnishing by the Carrier of any special equipment used in hoisting, lowering, handling or placing freight into position. Such special equipment will be furnished and operated by the Shipper/Consignee, except for hand trucks or four-wheeled hand carts, or pallet jacks (non-riding type) when furnished by the Shipper/Consignee. Shipper/Consignee shall assume responsibility for safe loading or unloading of the freight.
 3. Does not allow for the opening of packages or unitized shipments.
- B. Carrier will provide one employee per trailer for loading or unloading.
- C. Shipper/Consignee may, at his own expense, elect to waive and perform the loading or unloading of freight from Carrier's trailer.

Upon written arrangements, freight consigned to places where no representative of the Consignee is present or available to receipt for the shipment will be delivered and unloaded by Carrier and left unattended at the designated place.

Pickup and delivery service will not be provided on shipments moving from or to points or locations in fairs, exposition grounds, or amusement parks where the Carrier, or its agent, are required to pay charges or admission fees for entrance of vehicles to the grounds or parks.

Actual tender of delivery, notice by telephone, electronic transmission or mail, shall constitute notice of arrival of the shipment.

Item 0200 Pickup and Delivery Service

Section 01

Effective Jan/01/16

If a shipment cannot be delivered because of the Consignee's refusal or inability to accept it at the time Carrier makes arrival notice, or through no fault of the Carrier the freight cannot be delivered, for whatever reason, Carrier will make a diligent effort to notify the Shipper promptly that the freight is in storage and the reason thereof. The Consignee and Shipper will be jointly and severally liable for all storage and special handling charges applied, regardless of whether the bill of lading is Prepaid or Collect.

NOTE A: Except as provided otherwise in the specific rate item, the pickup and delivery service authorized herein does not include the loading of truckload shipments into Carrier's vehicle or the unloading of truckload shipments from Carrier's vehicle (for such provision see Item 2340). For the purposes of this item, a truckload shipment is one with an actual or billed weight of 10,000 pounds or more and/or one that exceeds 28 linear feet of a trailer, or a shipment subject to truckload ratings.

NOTE B: Provisions of this item do not apply on shipments to or from private residences or non-commercial locations, including apartments, churches, schools, camps and other such locations where commercial or business activity involving the sale of services, products or merchandise to the walk-in public is not normally conducted during normal business hours. A business will also be considered non-commercial when all doors are locked during normal business hours.
