Credit Terms

Payment of carrier's freight bill for applicable transportation and accessorial charges are due upon receipt of the involved shipment. Carrier may, at its sole option, extend credit for a period of time not to exceed thirty (30) days. Such time will be computed from the day following presentation of the freight bill and will include Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays. When payment of carrier's freight bill is not made within the allowed thirty (30) days, a late payment service charge of one and one-half percent (1-1/2%) per month or fraction thereof will be applied, at carrier's discretion, to the outstanding balance due on such freight bill.

By including a service charge for all payments received after thirty (30) days, carrier does not sanction payment delays. Should any consignor or consignee fail to pay the carriers freight bills within the allowable thirty (30) days credit period, carrier will suspend future extensions of credit and require prepayment on pickup or immediate payment upon tenders of delivery of freight transported for such consignors, consignees, or agents for consignors or consignees.

When payment is not received within thirty (30) days from the day following presentation of the freight bill, and it is necessary to refer the past due freight bill to an attorney or third-party for the enforcement of collection, carrier will be entitled to the reimbursement of reasonable attorney's fees and third-party fees and expenses computed at thirty-three percent (33%) of the transportation, accessorial and late payment charges due on carriers freight bill.

Terms and conditions may vary according to state and/or federal regulations.

Sound business judgment makes it essential that extension of our credit terms be governed solely on the qualifications based upon the ability to pay and your references.

Wiseway Motor Freight, Inc. does not and will not discriminate any application for credit because of sex, race, religion, creed, color, national origin, or ancestry, age, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, or status with regard to public assistance.

I (we) have read the above statement and agree to abide by Wiseway Motor Freight's terms and conditions of their credit policy.
